

BIG Hörsaal

8:30 am Registration / 10:00 am — 10:30 am Welcome

10:30 am — 12:00 am

Keynote 1: Peter Haslinger [Marburg/Gießen]

Austro-Hungarian Relations 1867–1914 – the perfect example of a community of conflict?

→ 1 hour lunchbreak

1:00 pm — 2:30 pm

Seminarraum 1

Panel 1: Borders

Nihad Dostović [Sarajevo]
Ottoman Hungary And Sanjak of Zvornik: A Study of Interdependence in the mid 17th Century

Nenad Obradović [Mol]
Life on the Ottoman-Hungarian Border
(15th Century – 1541)

Gábor Mikó [Budapest]
Hungarian-Ottoman diplomatic negotiations in Late Medieval Hungary
Chair: Zsuzsa Barbarics-Hermanik
[Vienna]
Commentor: Claudia Römer [Vienna]

Seminarraum 2

Panel 2: Humans and other Animals in the Late Imperial State

Jana Bélova / Madalena Šustová [Prague]
Prague residents and their pet dogs at the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries

Dasa Licen [Ljubljana]
Blurred Lines: The Animal-Human Divide
in the Imagination of the Habsburg
Bourgeoisie

Emma Nabi-Bourgeois [Oxford]
Readers, workers, beetles: human-nature relationships and literary fiction in/from the Bohemian Forest, 1867–1914

Chair: Anna Varga [Pécs]
Commentor: Wolfgang Göderle [Graz]

Seminarraum 3

Panel 3: Transatlantic Exchange and Imperialism

Adam Balogh [Budapest]
From the Danube to the Amazon: Austria-
Hungary and Brazil in Global Trade and Migration (1870s–1914)

Ignacio Garcia de Paso [Madrid]
'Aiding a downtrodden people to liberty':
European Filibusters and Forty-Eighter
imperialism (1848–1851)

Benjamin C. Van Zee [Florence]
A New Galicia in Brazil: The Impact of Habsburg Federalism on Polish Colonial Thought

Chair: Lucile Dreidemy [Vienna]
Commentor: Daniel Hedinger [Munich]

Seminarraum 4

Panel 4: Nation-Building in the Aftermath of the Great War

Natasa Henig Miscic [Ljubljana]
The Intersection of Economic Nationalism and Politics: Financial Institutions in Lower Styria

Sergiu Delcea [Bucharest]
(Re)building a prehistory of varieties of capitalism in Central and Eastern Europe: Employers

Milos Vojnovic [Belgrade]
The national councils and the birth of Yugoslavia: a fresh perspective on the end of Austria-Hungary?

Chair: David Schriffl [Vienna]
Commentor: Rebekah Klein-Pejsova
[West Lafayette, IN]

Seminarraum 5

Panel 5: Servants of the State: Public Servants and Representatives in the Empire and Beyond

Amila Kasumovic [Sarajevo]
Disciplining civil servant: mechanism of punishing the violations of administrative work ethics in Habsburg-era Bosnia

Therese Garstenauer [Vienna]
Austrian government employees between the world wars – what did they lose, what did they gain?

Martin Klecacky [Prague]
Fostering the State Patriotism in Practice.
State Representatives and Their Impact on Local Societies

Chair: Benjamin Frommer [Evanston, IL]
Commentor: Daniel Unowsky
[Memphis, TN]

3:00 pm – 4:30 pm

Seminarraum 1

Panel 6: (honoring Pieter Judson)
East Central Europe in a Global Context

Mate Rigo [Munich]
Globalizing East-Central European
History and its Challenges

Anca Cretu [Warwick]
Austria-Hungary and Wartime
Refugees: Blind Spots of Global Displacement History?

Franz Fillafer [Vienna]
Placing the Habsburg Monarchy afresh
in Global and Imperial Histories

Maureen Healy [Portland]
Austria and the Shifting of the „East“

Matthew Rampley [Brno]
Tahiti in the Czech / Slovak Imagination

Chair: Peter Becker [Vienna]

Seminarraum 2

Panel 7:
Technology, Industry, and Modernity

Bianca Cetrone [Princeton]
The Factory: Comparative Approaches to the Industrialization of Central-
Eastern Europe.

Gregor Feindt [Leibnitz]
The scientification of meritocracy.
Social engineering and the production of ideal employees in the Baťa shoe company, 1918–1941

Anna Remesova [Prague]
Bosnian Handicraft between Tradition and Industrialization. The Role of Czech Actors in the Austro-Hungarian
Occupation of Bosnia and Herzegovina
1878–1918

Chair: Julia Mead [Chicago, IL]
Commentor: Edit Fabó [Budapest]

Seminarraum 3

Panel 8:
Women/Credit

Eveline Brugger [Vienna]
„So Says Muskat, Seldman's Widow
From Marburg.“ Tracing the Career of a Jewish Business-woman Under the Rule of Friedrich III

Anna Molnár [London]
Private Banking Activities of Female
Religious Organisations in the Later
Middle Ages

Oana Sorescu-Iudean [Bucharest]
“Subtle and en-trenched ways”:
Networks of public debt and private credit in Transylvania, 1750–1800

Chair: Christina Lutter [Vienna]
Commentor: Andrea Griesebner
[Vienna]

Seminarraum 4

Panel 9:
Reformation

Peter Benka [Bratislava]
Hungarian Urban Reformation:
Trans-Regional Influences and Local Traditions

Anastazja M Grudnicka [Chicago]
Rethinking Westphalia: Toleration,
Foreign Intervention, and Minority
Churches in Habsburg Silesia

Zsombor Tóth [Budapest]
Laniena Parisiensis (1572): French-
Hungarian Comparisons in the Context of Long Reformation (1500–1800)

Chair: Ellinor Forster [Innsbruck]
Commentor: Howard Louthan [Twin Cities, MN]

Seminarraum 5

Panel 10:
The Changing Fates of Social Elites

Jan Bouska [Prague]
Nobility in the changing world: Oscar baron Parish, universal suffrage and strategies of adaptation

Helena Toth [Göttingen]
The Moral Economy of Retribution:
Confiscations and Sequestrations as Political Punishment in the Kingdom of Hungary 1848–1867

Jana Wohlmuth-Markupova [Prague]
The Rises and Falls of Czechoslovak Democracy in the Perspective of One of its Elite Protagonists: Hugo Vavrečka

Chair: Miha Preinfalk [Ljubljana]
Commentor: Gergely Romsics
[Budapest]

5:00 pm – 6:30 pm

Seminarraum 1

Panel 11: Migration and Refuge in Times of War

Enise Kapusuz [Florence]

A Long History of Migration: Ottoman Muslim Women's activities in Vienna during and after WWI (1914–1919)

Balázs Juhász [Budapest]

Central-European culture outside Central-Europe: Learning, exchanging knowledge and education in Italian prisoner-of-war camps (1915–1920)

Yevhenii Monastyrskyi [Cambridge]

"Reaching the Land of the Freedom": Political Migrants, Forced Citizenship and Regimes of Belonging in the Soviet Union

Chair: Katarzyna Nowak [Vienna]

Commentor: Mark Cornwall [Southampton]

Seminarraum 2

Panel 12: Mental Health and Psychology in Central Europe

Christina Eiden [Augsburg]

Arson, 'senile marasmus' and delinquency – a comparison of the early years of the "Heil- und Pflegeanstalten" Irsee und Kaufbeuren with the "Bukowinaer Landes-Heil- und Pflegeanstalt Czernowitz"

Sabine Jesper [Vienna]

First Steps in mental health care in the Habsburg Monarchy: Understanding and addressing war-related illnesses

Anastasiya Schacht [Heidelberg]

Friendly aliens – circulating psychiatric knowledge across the 20th Century Central Europe

Chair: Heike Karge [Graz]

Commentor: Paul Lerner [Paris]

Seminarraum 3

Panel 13: The Commons: Its Use and Transformation

Zsuzsa Török [Vienna]

The territorialization of common-pool resource institutions in the Habsburg Monarchy

Robert Balogh [Budapest]

Discourse, Domination and Negotiation. Economic Writings and Ground Reality of Dissolving Forest Commons in the Kingdom of Hungary

Svit Komel [Ljubljana]

Surveys and transformation of property in the Habsburg Empire

Chair: Julia Richers [Bern]

Commentor: Kurt Scharr [Innsbruck]

Seminarraum 4

Panel 14: Imperial Continuities and Legacies

Ivan Jelacic [Rijeka]

The fallen for the Cause of Fiume. The Austro-Hungarian Background of Local Fascist Italy Martyrs

Elisavet Papaexopolou [Florence]

From Corfu to Vienna: The Ionian Islands, Habsburg Influence, and the Mediterranean Intellectual Sphere

Tamas Revesz [Budapest]

Borderland war without brutalization. War veterans in the conflict for Burgenland in 1921

Chair: Nancy Wingfield [DeKalb, IL]

Commentor: Chad Bryant [Chapel Hill]

Seminarraum 5

Panel 15: Religion/State

Gergely Brandl [Szeged]

"Processes must be purified!" – Georgius Podhradszky and the Investigation of the Hungarian Chancellery during the Great Witch-hunt of Szeged 1728–1729

Benjamin Seebröcker [Münster]

Coercion and Negotiating Power. Revisiting Seigneurial Rule in the Holy Roman Empire

Béla Vilmos Mihalik [Budapest]

Parish Politics in 18th Century Hungary

Chair: László Kontler [Budapest]

Commentor: Franz L. Fillafer [Vienna]

→ 1½ hour break / program at Collegium Hungaricum:

8:00 pm – 9:00 pm

Keynote 2: Tara Zahra [Chicago]

What Good is Habsburg History when the World is on Fire?

→ open end

8:30_{am} – 10:00_{am}Seminarraum 1*Panel 16:
Global Migration in a Transatlantic Context

Zhanna Popova [Vienna]
Addressing women's migration from Poland:
International discussions
during the interwar period

Allison Schmidt
[Philadelphia]
The Viapolitics of Austro-
Hungarian Emigration

Balint Varga [Graz]
Recovering Great Hungary
in the Jungle of Brazil:
Hungarian Settlers and Utopias in Brazil and
Argentina in the 1920s and 1930s

Chair: Balázs Ablonczy
[Paris]
Commentor: Maren Röger
[Leipzig]

10:30_{am} – 12:00_{am}Panel 20:
Constructing Borderlands and Frontiers

Leos Kopka [Pardubice]
The Construction of the Czechoslovakian fortification
System and Sudeten Germans

Jovo Miladinovic [Konstanz]
Overpowering a Maritime Fear: Habsburg Monarchy, Sea
Raiding, and the Securitization of the Mediterranean during the Balkan Revolutionary Age
(1815–1832)

Viktoria Serhienko [Warsaw]
A Bone of Contention.
Ukrainophiles' and
Russophiles' Attempts to Gain
Autonomy for Podkarpatská
Rus. 1919–1938

Chair: Ellinor Forster
[Innsbruck]
Commentor: Borut Klabjan
[Florence]

Seminarraum 2Panel 17:
Resources

Tadej Pavković [Ljubljana]
Breeding for Collections:
Horse Husbandry at the
Lipica Stud Farm in 17th
Century Inner Austria

Lisa Kolb [Augsburg]
Handling Saltpeter –
Habsburg's resource regimes in the Thirty Years'
War

Kata Tóth [Vienna]
Oinking in the Mountains.
Pig Husbandry in the Late
Medieval and Early Modern
Southern and Eastern
Carpathians

Chair: Doris Gruber [Vienna]
Commentor: Sebastian
Felten [Vienna]

Panel 21: Networks

Melchior Jakubowski
[Warsaw]
Was the First Partition of Poland-Lithuania a Turning Point? The Example of the Artistic Activities of the Basilian Order in Galicia

Ágnes Dóbké [Budapest]
Hungarian Clergy in the Republic of Letters: Networks and Cultural Engagement in Central Europe (1750–1800)

Taisei Yamashita [Vienna]
Mapping Power: Court
Quartering System and Aristocratic Networks in
Maria Theresia's Vienna

Chair: Manuela Mayer
[Vienna]
Commentor: Kolja Lichy
[Vienna]

Seminarraum 3Panel 18:
Visions of Governance

Krisztián Csaplár-Degovics
[Budapest]
'Bad Empire' vs. 'Good Empire'
– Concepts of Empire in the Debates of the Hungarian House of Representatives at the turn of the Century

Laszlo Mika [Berlin]
Competing Cis- and Transleithanian Historical
Visions in the Kronprinzenwerk
(1885–1902)

Rachel Trode [Bad Mitterndorf]
"[T]he worst absolutism prevails": The Austrian Delegation's "Bosnia Debate" of 1906 as Political Discourse
in the Late Habsburg
Monarchy

Chair: Michal Ksinan
[Bratislava]
Commentor: John Paul
Newman [Maynooth]

Panel 22:
The Urban Space and the Home

Noemi Kovacs [Budapest]
The reconstruction of the missing annual reports of the Budapest police captain-chief of the Horthy period

Susanne Korbel [Graz]
The Bed Lodger's Treat?
Sexual Socialization in (Habsburg) Central Europe,
1880–1930

Aleksander Lupienko
[Warsaw]
Lviv 1848–1914: the history of space

Chair: Pieter Judson [Florence]
Commentor: Robert Nemes
[Hamilton, NY]

Seminarraum 4Panel 19:
Habsburg Monarchy and the
Global Web of Empire

Jonathan Singerton
[Amsterdam]
An Imperial Late-Comer? The
Habsburg Monarchy and the
Global Web of Empire

Zhiao Song [Vienna]
When Austria Entered China:
Three Dimensions of the Localization of European Knowledge in Modern China

Markus Wurzer [Graz]
(Not) A Colonial Power?
Imperialism of the Habsburg
Empire in Austrian Memory
Cultures from 1918 to the Present

Chair: Christian De Vito
[Leicester]
Commentor: Natasha Wheatley
[Princeton, NJ]

Panel 23:
Chronopolitics of Modernization in Central and Eastern Europe

Raul Carstocea [Maynooth]
A Quest for Synchronicity: The Chronopolitics of Global Fascist
Revolution in a Balkan Periphery

Vita Zalar [Ljubljana]
Racial Chronopolitics and Capitalist Modernity: Roma and Sinti in Austria-Hungary

Andrei Sorescu [Bucharest]
The Politics of Peripheral
Timeliness: Fin-de-Siècle
Central and Eastern European Antisemitism in a Transnational and Global Context

Chair: Mila Orlic [Rijeka]
Commentor: Christian Goeschel
[Manchester]

→ 1 hour lunchbreak

1:00 pm – 2:30 pm

Seminarraum 1Panel 24:
Modernity in the Countryside

Corinne Geering [Linz]
State Aid for Europe's
Peripheries: A Transregional
History of Development in and beyond the Habsburg Empire,
1870s–1914

Laszlo Vörös [Bratislava]
Peasants, Power, and Politics: Rural perceptions of Nationalism in Late 19th Century Slovakia

Bogdan Dumitru [Gainesville]
Negotiating with the Nation-
State in Interwar Transylvania:
Land Reform, Socio-Economic Marginalization, and Political Disaffection

Chair: Kurt Scharr [Innsbruck]
Commentor:
Patrice Dabrowski [Boston, MA]

3:00 pm – 4:30 pm

Panel 28:
Communication/ Religion

Viktor Kanász [Budapest]
Relations between Rome and the Kingdom of Hungary
in the mid-16th Century,
according to the work of the
Viennese nuncios

Stanislava Kuzmová
[Bratislava]
Patterns of social and religious communication in preaching in Central Europe: the case study of late medieval Spiš/
Zips/Szepes region

Benjamin Marschke [Arcata]
Vienna in East Elbia:
Receptions of the Habsburg
Monarchy's Monarchical Self-
Representation in a Village in Brandenburg in the Early Enlightenment

Chair: Thomas Wallnig [Vienna]
Commentor: Martin Scheutz
[Vienna]

Seminarraum 2Panel 25:
Military

Florin Nicolae Ardelean
[Cluj-Napoca]
Mercenary networks in
East-Central Europe:
Foreigners in the court army
of John Sigismund Szapolyai
(1556–1571)

Bence Péterfi [Budapest]
Family–Home–Loyalty: Late
Medieval Autobiographies of Foreign Mercenaries Serving in Habsburg Lands

László Szokola [Budapest]
The Role of the Urban Military in the Military Organization of the Late Medieval Kingdom of
Hungary

Chair: Dusan Zupka [Bratislava]
Commentor: Alexandra Kaar
[Vienna]

Panel 29: Diplomacy

Giorgio Rota [Bratislava] „Unknown Persians” in Prague: Habsburg-Safavid
contacts, 1610–1616

Magdalena Jakubowska
[Warsaw]
Diplomatic Encounters
between Poland-Lithuania and the Habsburgs during the Long Turkish War
(1593–1606)

Ágnes Szalai [Budapest]
„... the Benefits of Peace belong to Others, its Misery to Transylvania ...” The Peace of Vasvár and the Principality of Transylvania

Chair: Yasir Yilmaz [Vienna]
Commentor: Arno
Strohmeier [Vienna]

Seminarraum 3Panel 26:
Peril and Promise of Revolution in the mid-19th Century

Daniel Banks [Florence]
Surveillance, Revolutionary
Activism, and the Afterlives of 1848 on the Southwest Fringes of Habsburg Central Europe

Henry Philippe Blood
[New York]
Railroads and Revolutionaries

Yasyn Abdullaev [Berkeley]
Fears of Sedition and the Autocratic Securitization:
Ruling Polish Lands from Vienna, St. Petersburg and
Berlin, 1830s–1850s

Chair: Tanja Penter [Heidelberg]
Commentor: Elena Bacchin
[Vienna]

Panel 30: (honoring P. Judson)
End of Empire – Fall of Empire

Claire Morelon [Manchester]
Empire & Nation through War:
Rethinking 1918

Natasha Grace Wheatley
[Princeton]
Making a World of States:
Multinational Empire – and its Dissolution – in the History of Sovereignty

Gabor Egry [Budapest]
From indifference to agency. A new History of the Habsburg
Empire from below?

Jan Rybak [Vienna]
From the multinational
imperial state to states of many nations? Jewish strategies and perspectives in 1918/19

Daniel Unowsky [Memphis]
The Afterlife of Empire: Zywiec
Beer and Transformations of the Habsburg Legacy

Chair: Dominique Reill
[Miami, FL]

Seminarraum 4Panel 27:
Activism and Progressive Movements in the Society

Emily Steinhauer [London]
The Making of an Academic
Activist in Interwar Vienna:
Marie Jahoda and the Possibilities of Intellectual
Labour from Austria to Exile

Fabian Baumann [Heidelberg]
The Legal Prosecution of Czechoslovak Communists for Treason and Disloyalty,
1919–ca. 1925

Gabriella Jeki [Budapest]
Connections and Education:
How Could a Female Journalist
Succeed at the Turn of the Century?

Chair: Sabine Rutar [Leibniz]
Commentor: Judit Hammerstein
[Budapest]

Panel 31:
Empire in the Urban Space

Irene Messinger [Vienna]
The Disruption of Social Work
Knowledge: The Impact of Fascist Regimes in the 1930s on Individuals, Institutions, and Professional Expertise in Vienna

Agnes Nemeth [Budapest]
Budapest: A sanitary Danube capital

Gábor Koloh [Budapest]
Birth Control in Interwar
Hungary

Chair: Alice Freifeld
[Gainesville, FL]
Commentor: Andreas Weigl
[Vienna]

5:00_{pm} – 6:30_{pm}

Seminarraum 1	Seminarraum 2	Seminarraum 3	Seminarraum 4
Panel 32: Imagining the Nation Nikola Tomasegovic [Zagreb] Visions of Illyria: The Illyrian Movement and the Construction of National Territory Imre Tarafás [Budapest] "By 'nation' we do not mean that narrow-minded catchword" Joseph Alexander von Helfert and the "Austrian nation" Anna Adorjáni [Augsburg] Belonging in Transition. Non-territorial autonomy in Austria-Hungary Chair: Milos Reznik [Chemnitz] Commentor: Michael L. Miller [Vienna]	Panel 33: Sources For Medieval History Bálint Lakatos [Budapest] The Journey of Konrad von Weinsberg to Hungary in 1428. Routes, Expenses and Conclusion Johannes Laroche [Graz] Charter networks in the late-medieval small towns of Krems-Stein Oleksandr Okhrimenko [Kyiv] Objects of Cultural Memory: Ukrainian Book Heritage as an International Research Challenge Chair: Judit Majorossy [Vienna] Commentor: Jonathan Lyon [Vienna]	Panel 34: The Long Afterlife of Empire Marco Bresciani [Florence] 1938 as the End of Post-Habsburg Europe: The Impact of the Anschluss on the Mitteleuropean-Adriatic connections Gyöngyi Heltai [Hanoi] Transnational networks of Central European play-brokers and theatrical agents – Dr. Alexander /Sándor/ Marton (1871–1938) and Edmund Pauker /Pók Ödön/ (1887–1962) Răzvan Rosu [Cluj-Napoca] The Habsburg myth as a form of „symbolic power“ in the Transylvanian traditional communities Chair: Pál Hatos [Budapest] Commentor: Cristina Florea [Ithaca, NY]	Panel 35: Being Single and Reading the News / Singlehood in the Urban Space Orel Beilinson [Jerusalem] Bachelors and the Public Sphere in Late Imperial Prague, 1907–1915 Zsuzsa Kiss [Budapest] What does it mean to be single? – "Late singlehood" in the public discourse and in personal narratives Michael Wilczewski [Chicago] Mirroring the Male Gaze: What Men's Humor Magazines Can Tell Us About Masculinity in Interwar Poland Chair: Burkhardt Wolf [Vienna] Commentor: Anita Kurimay [Bryn Mawr, PN]

→ 1 hour break / program at WUK:7:30_{pm} – 8:30_{pm}Panel Discussion:

Pieter Judson and the Future of the Habsburg Empire

Jana Osterkamp [Augsburg]Mark Cornwall [Southampton]Alison Frank Johnson [Cambridge, Mass]Kamil Karczewski [Graz]Emily Greble [Nashville]Chair: Gary Cohen [Twin Cities]8:30_{pm} – 2:00_{am}Reception

8:30 am — 10:00 am

Seminarraum 1

Panel 36: The Arts in the Service of Politics

Richard Kurdiovsky [Vienna]
Diversity in unity? The public administration's personnel in matters of public architecture

Naoko Kogo [Osaka]
The Politics of Electricity and Choreography: Electrification
of the Vienna Court Opera and its Adaptation of the Irredentism Ballet „Excelsior“

Bela Rasky [Vienna]
Reactionary Politics, Cultural
Modernism. An Austrofascist
Paradox?

Chair: Monika Bockova
[Bratislava]
Commentor: Matthew
Rampey [Brno]

10:30 am — 12:00 am

Panel 40: Diplomacy between Bureaucrats and Noblemen

Vladislav Lilic [Miami-Dade]
Outward State Transborder
Nation Building and
Serb Consuls in Ottoman
Macedonia (1887–1912)

Sven Mörsdorf [Florence]
Bureaucrat-Diplomats:
Habsburg Consuls in the Balkans and the World, ca.
1840s–1920s

Jonathan Kwan [Nottingham]
Emperor Franz, Metternich
and the Duke of Reichstadt, 1811–1832: Legacies of Napoleonic Europe in France and Austria

Chair: Lucy Riall [Florence]
Commentor: Andrej Rahten
[Ljubljana]

Seminarraum 2

Panel 37: Transnational Networks of Science and State Building

Jared Warren [Leibniz]
Botany, Diplomacy, and State-building in Interwar
East Central Europe

Tibor Bodnar-Kiraly
[Budapest]
Statistics and the Enlightenment: A History of Political Knowledge in
Habsburg Central Europe

Janeek Wasserman
[Tuscaloosa]
Creating a Human Economy:
The Role of Central European
Social Scientists in Post-WWI
Economic Transformation

Chair: Erika Szívós [Budapest]
Commentor: Holly Case
[Providence, RI]

Panel 41: Politics, Performance, and Psychoanalysis from Empire to Nation

Andreea Kaltenbrunner
[Regensburg]
„A Christian Vienna for all
Peoples“: Karl Lueger's
Nationalities Politics

Karel Sima [Prague]
On the Road to High Modernity? Periodization of 19th Century History in Central Europe with a Case Study of Public Festivities in the Bohemian Crown Lands

Sunaina Danziger
[Princeton]
“To Cure the Ills of Nations”:
Nationalism, Psychoanalysis,
and Intelligence in Interwar
Central Europe

Chair: Márkus Keller
[Budapest]
Commentor: Scott Moore
[Windham, CT]

Seminarraum 3

Panel 38: Military History as Social History / Military Culture in the Civil Society

Michal Cap [Prague]
Nationalizing the Officer
Corps: Prestige, Identity, and Civil-Military Relations in Interwar Czechoslovakia

Marie Findeisen [Florence]
“Social Democrat Emmy
Freundlich's 1916 challenge to the idea of warrior homesteads”

Oksana Vynnyk [Maynooth]
War disability and production of urban space in interwar Polish cities

Chair: Goran Vasin [Novi Sad]
Commentor: Tamara Scheer
[Vienna]

Panel 42: Making the Economies of Central Europe

Zachary Mazur [Warsaw]
“Trust and the Social Meaning of Money: New currency in interwar Poland”

Gabriel Godeffroy [Paris]
The Central European Economic Congress: the political implications of Central European economic integration (1925–1930)

Anna Diem [Geneva]
Organizing for progress.
Rudolf Broda and his transnational networks

Chair: David Petrucci
[Hanover, NH]
Commentor: Mate Rigo
[Munich]

Seminarraum 4

Panel 39: Imperial History through Food

Amy Millet [Lawrence]
You Are What You Eat: Everyday
Empire Through Food in the Late Imperial Habsburg Lands

Corentin Gruffat [Florence]
Animal husbandry improvement and the modernisation of the Habsburg Empire in the 19th Century

Jernej Kosi [Ljubljana]
Food supply management in the period of political transition in Prekmurje: state endeavors from above and local agency from below

Chair: Claudia Kreklau
[St. Andrews]
Commentor: Claire Morelon
[Manchester]

Panel 43: Health, Care, and Control in the Monarchy

Janka Kovács [Budapest]
Travel, Observation, and Technological Transfers.
The Models of Psychiatric Institutionalization in 19th Century Hungary

Gergely Magos [Budapest]
Paralysis, the „Hungarian insanity“. Masculinity and the degeneration of the nation in the Hungarian medical discourse

Viktoria Saghy [Pécs]
Venereal Diseases and Prostitution in the Austro-
Hungarian Monarchy: Official
Data in the Light of British Reports

Chair: Jan Rybak [Vienna]
Commentor: Susan
Zimmermann [Budapest]

→ 1 hour lunchbreak

1:00 pm – 2:30 pm

Seminarraum 1Panel 44:
The Law in the Making of Central European Societies

Sebastian Spitra [Münster]
The History of Private Law as Imperial History. New Approaches to the Legal History of the Habsburg Empire

Peter Techet [Krems/Donau]
Accusations of “Judicial Activism” against the First Austrian Constitutional Court (1918 – 1930) – Lessons from the First Republic for the Present

Oskar Mulej [Vienna]
Interwar nationalities law in Central Europe: The 1930s illiberal re-negotiation of collective national rights and the path towards ethnic sovereignty

Chair: Claire Morelon [Manchester]
Commentor: Jana Osterkamp [Augsburg]

3:00 pm – 4:30 pm

Panel 48:
Organised Christianity in the Apostolic Monarchy

Tomasz Hen-Konarski [Warsaw]
The Dalmatian Mission of Galicia's Greek Catholic Metropolitanate, 1819–1823: A Case Study in Habsburg Confessional Politics of the Early 19th Century

Christopher Wendt [Florence]
With God into the New Era: Reviving Catholic Authority after Empire in an Austrian Province

Katalin Pataki [Budapest]
Negotiating the Oath of Allegiance in the Habsburg Realms between 1781–1848

Chair: Gábor Hollósi [Budapest]
Commentor: James Bjork [London]

Seminarraum 2Panel 45:
From Jewish Integration to the „Only True Austrians“?

Ilya Berkovich [Vienna]
Forgotten Soldiers: Jewish Conscripts in the Last Habsburg-Ottoman War (1788–1791)

Lida Maria Dodou [Vienna]
National Indifference Across Imperial Borders: Sephardi Jews between the Ottoman and the Habsburg Empire

Alicija Maslak-Maciejewska [Krakow]
Education of Jews in the 19th Century Galicia. A proposal for a methodological shift

Chair: Martina Steer [Vienna]
Commentor: Marsha Rozenblit [College Park, MD]

Panel 49:
Public Health /
Transformation of the Health Care

Viola Laszlofi [Budapest]
From Increasing Medicalization to Class Struggles in Hospital Wards: Doctor-Patient Conflicts in Budapest, 1880s–1930s

Lucija Balikic [Vienna]
Socializing Access to Environment Across Transitions: The Progressive Heritage of the (Post-) Habsburg Health Resorts, 1890–1930

Alexander Obermüller [Erfurt]
The Early Ambulance Movement: Roots and Ties in Central Europe, 1880s–1910s

Chair: John Paul Newman [Maynooth]
Commentor: Ke-Chin Hsia [Bloomington, IN]

Seminarraum 3Panel 46:
Trading and Trafficking
Across the Border

Vlad Popovici [Cluj-Napoca]
Political networks in Transylvanian financial and economic institutions in the early 1920s

Darko Leitner-Stojanow [Sarajevo]
From Monastir to Vienna and beyond: Tracing the networks and mobility of merchant families

Margarita Lerman [Jerusalem]
Habsburg Authorities and Jewish Suspects Active in Trafficking Networks

Chair: Michael Burri [Media, PA]
Commentor: Gabor Egly [Budapest]

Panel 50:
Cultures of Conflict in the Local Space

Jan Bernot [Innsbruck]
Mitigating Nationalist Conflicts in Late Habsburg-Austria: On the Aftermath of Nationalist Violence in Domžale/Domschale

David Smrcek [Vienna]
Protest Culture in Bohemia from 1890s to 1930s: Theoretical Considerations

Vincent Hoyer [Leipzig]
Beyond National Stages. Popular Entertainment and National Conflict in Habsburg Lemberg (1890–1914)

Chair: Paul Miller-Melamed [Westminster, MD]
Commentor: Winson Chu [Milwaukee, WI]

Seminarraum 4Panel 47:
Revisiting the Habsburg
Empire's Last War

Paul Gradwohl [Paris]
War By Design? Silencing Peace Options Offered by the Military. French and Entente failure to face the Central European Security Challenge after World War I.

Jovana Lazic [Stanford]
Belgrade and Bitola: Life in Two Balkan Border Cities in a Time of War and Occupation, 1912–1918

Marcela Hennlichova [Prague]
Central European Cities During the Coal Crisis of 1916–1918: Societal Impacts and Daily Life

Chair: John Deak [Notre Dame, IN]
Commentor: Robert Gerwarth [Dublin]

Panel 51:
Discovering Dualism in Debate: Administrative
Reform Debates in the late Habsburg Monarchy

Julia Bavouzet [Vienna]
Matyas Erdelyi [Vienna]
Thomas Rohringer [Munich]

Chair: Iván Bertényi [Vienna]
Commentor: Jeremy King [South Hadley, MA]

5:00 pm – 6:30 pm

Seminarraum 1

Panel 52:
Sounds of Music from the Habsburg Lands to the World

Rebecca Epstein-Boley [Chicago]
"All Over the World, We Hear the Sounds of Home": Bohemian Musicians and the Politics of Cultural Mobility around 1900

Anthony J. Steinhoff [Montreal]
Alfred Roller and Wagner's Parsifal: Vienna, Bayreuth, and Beyond

Fritz Trümpi [Vienna]
How military bands and their enemies politicized musicians and music practices in Austria around 1900

Chair: Gary Cohen [Twin Cities, MN]
Commentor: Philipp Ther [Vienna]

Seminarraum 2

Panel 53:
The Great War Beyond the Front / The Great War and the Society in the Hinterland

Evelyn Knappitsch [Graz]
On the Trail of Words. Censorship, 'Human Intelligence' and early 'data-mining' during World War I

Kathryn Densford [Reno]
Gynecological Rape, Sexuality, and Internment during the First World War

Yuzu Nakatsuji [Kyoto]
First World War and Prague Modernist Artists: Focusing on Manes Artists' Society

Chair: Leonard Smith [Oberlin, OH]
Commentor: Jonathan Gumz [West Point, NY]

Seminarraum 3

Panel 54:
Archeology and the Making of History

Daniel Baric [Paris]
Archaeologies of Antiquarian Lives in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Dalmatia and Transylvania, from Imperial to Post-Imperial Constraints

Cosmin Minea [Brno]
Restoring Heritage, Shaping Identity: Byzantine Architecture in National and Transnational Contexts in 19th Century Serbia and Romania

Daniela Haarmann [Vienna]
When the Argonauts Sailed the Drava – Patriotic Historiography in Styria and Crain around 1800

Chair: Johannes Feichtinger [Vienna]
Commentor: Janaina Martins Cordeiro [Rio de Janeiro]

Seminarraum 4

Panel 55:
International Movements and International Protection

Elena Hoffenberg [Chicago]
The Right Work and the Right to Work: Oscar I. Janowsky, the Minorities Treaties, and Economic Rights for Jews in Interwar Poland

Nicole Albrecht [Washington D.C.]
Peasant Internationalism: Post-imperial state building and the making of the global welfare regime

Judit Acsady [Budapest]
International Suffrage event in Central Europe, connecting women from the region with the rest of the world: The case of the 1913 IWSA Congress in Budapest

Chair: Balázs Pálvölgyi [Budapest]
Commentor: Anca Cretu [Coventry]

→ End of Conference